

Anglers United Newsletter

November 2024

The “Birds” are arriving here in LHC for the winter. While the temps have been cooling off, Anglers activities have not. If I asked you ... What haven't we had here in years? ... what would be your answer? How about FISHING CLASSES? Yes, thanks to Jim Hatter we’re getting back into the fishing classes. He’s assembled Fishing Guides who do their business right here on our lake. They will take place over four months starting December 10 at the local library and followed up in January, February and March. The particulars are on our website - anglersunited.org - but to save you the time, our December 10 class will begin at 6:30pm with guide Don Allen at the Lake Havasu City Library up on McCulloch.

The other news is that we’re still busy down at Partner’s Point putting new habitat in the lake. We’re doing that with our partner BLM on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays from 8am –noon. With the cooler temps it’s actually a great place to catch up and get some exercise.

Anglers also has a new batch of T-shirts—the logo of which you can see above. They’re available to new members through their membership and available at the fishing classes.
